

Hilton Head Area Council of Estate and Financial Advisors, Inc.

Hilton Head Island, South Carolina

The Hilton Head Area Council of Estate and Financial Advisors, Inc. is an organization composed of Hilton Head area professionals who have been recognized by their peers for their superior service and knowledge in their specialty.

The purpose of the Hilton Head Area Council of Estate and Financial Advisors is to:

- Provide a professional-level forum to foster communication and interchange among Council members.
- Support members' efforts to be currently informed of developments in the wide spectrum of disciplines involved in estate and financial planning.
- Encourage and sustain understanding, mutual respect, and cooperation among the professionals represented on the Council.
- Inform and educate the local communities about the importance of estate and financial planning.
- Establish and maintain relations with local, regional, and State institutions that regulate and support the respective professions represented.
- Re-enforce the high standards of the respective professions to ensure the best professional services to clients and to the community.

In memory of James Christopher Moore, the Hilton Head Area Council of Estate and Financial Advisors, is proud to present:

The James C. Moore Gift of Education Scholarship

A one time $1,000 Scholarship

Education is a lifetime gift, and CEFA's memorial scholarship program provides a meaningful way for our organization to honor a special person and carry his legacy forward to future generations of students.

James C. Moore, Jim, served as President and Communications Vice President for CEFA, Council of Estate & Financial Advisors and had a major impact on making the Hilton Head Council one of the best in the nation, as recognized by the NAEPC.

Jim was a mentor to many of our current members. He was also a board member for the All Saints Episcopal Church, and President of the Board for Hospice of the Low Country. He was an active supporter of Deep Well and Second Helpings.

A decorated Air Force Colonel, Jim served in the Viet Nam War and ended his 29year military career at the United Nations to then work as a financial planner for 20 years, most recently at Wells Fargo Advisors in Hilton Head. Jim was an avid learner earning multiple degrees from Fairfield University, Marquette University, University of Oklahoma, and a Juris Doctor from Catholic University of America. He was active in supporting social justice, veterans, and the poor. He was an active supporter of the Hilton Head Choral Society, Hilton Head Symphony Orchestra, and Death by Chocolate, which sponsored the Girl Scouts of Eastern South Carolina.

\